

Area Map

Did you know our stunning sugar white beaches are composed of fine quartz eroded from granite in the Appalachian Mountains? The sand is carried seaward by rivers and creeks and deposited by currents along the shore.